

The Bayleys Fishing Classic 2022 Auction

We're excited to announce that all LegaSea supporters have the opportunity to bid on these items even if you're not part of the Fishing Classic.

How to bid

1. Look through the list of auction items and let us know the maximum you'd like to bid for a particular item you'd like to secure. Your bid will act much like an Auto-Bid in Trade Me. We will keep you just ahead of the second highest bidder up until your maximum is reached. N.B. Your maximum bid will not be used unless it is necessary.
2. Email support@legasea.co.nz with your name and phone number. Include the maximum amount you'd like to bid for a specific auction item. You must let us know your interest in bidding and your maximum bid by 9am Friday 28th October. The live auction will commence at 5pm Friday 28th October.

Notes

1. If you'd like to be updated and involved in any of the live auctions please register your interest with us, along with the item you are interested in and the maximum you are prepared to pay. We will keep you in the lead if required at less than your maximum until such time as your maximum is reached. If you wish us to call you once your maximum is passed you will need to let us know and be available to answer your phone. We will do our best to call you but if we can't get through, we can't be held responsible. The best advice is to set your maximum as high as you wish to go to be sure to pass any other live bid until such time as you are happy to let it go to another bidder.
2. If you're the winner of a silent or live auction item, one of our team will contact you immediately to let you know and confirm payment details. As this is an auction event you are obligated to pay the amount you bid as soon as possible.

Happy Bidding!

The LegaSea team
